HEATING SYSTEM WITH AIR CONDITIONING

ITS Ready Mobile Home is equipped with a heating and air-conditioning system configured independently for each room, so it is possible to individually set the temperature, power and airflow direction depending on the location. This system provides economical and effective heating during the winter. During the summer, it allows you to instantly cool the air thanks to the air conditioning option.

SLIDING WINDOWS WITH 3 PANELS

Energy efficiency and high standard of the building is ensured by 3 panel windows with a sliding system. These are comfortable to use and provide thermal comfort and adequate lighting.

MECHANICAL VENTILATION WITH HEAT RECOVERY

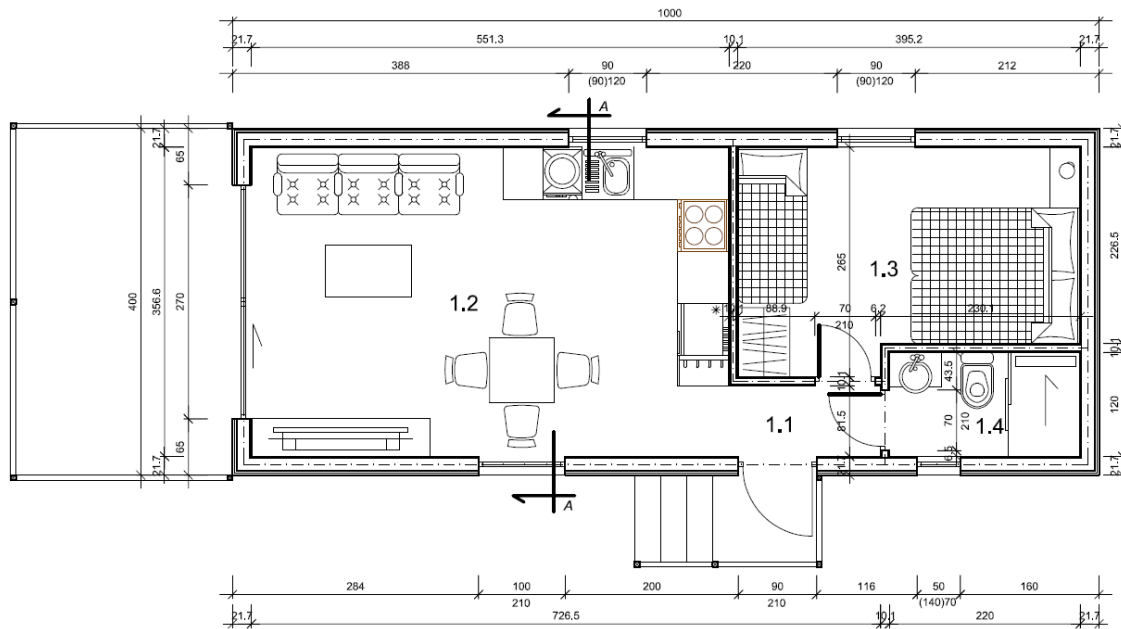

Fresh air all day without opening windows and airing? It's possible thanks to the system of decentralized mechanical ventilation with heat recovery, which ensures continuous air exchange without heat losses. This modern ventilation system provides living comfort incomparable to standard gravity ventilation.
